

JUST SAY GOODBYE

Don't say you need me. You'll be just fine.
Don't say you want me. It's just the wine.
Don't say you'll change for me. That's just a line.
This time, just say goodbye.

Don't tell me stories I've heard before.
Don't say you're sorry. Sorry's a bore.
Don't say we're meant to be. Not anymore.
This time, just say goodbye.

I wasn't sure how this would end. Then you just walked away.
Now you've returned. Sorry my friend. I can't pretend.
And we both know if you stay...

You'll make me promises you'll never keep.
I'll fall for you again. I'll fall so deep.
Don't say you love me. The price is just too steep.
This time, just say goodbye.

I wasn't sure how this would end. Then you just walked away.
Now you've returned. Sorry my friend. I can't pretend.
And we both know if you stay...

You'll make me promises you'll never keep.
I'll fall for you again. I'll fall so deep.
Don't say you love me. The price is just too steep.
This time, just say it.
Here's the check. Let's pay it.
This time, just say goodbye.
