

2023 MAC Awards

PIANO BAR INSTRUMENTALIST Application

An instrumentalist (piano or other instrument), who may or may not sing, who entertains in a club, restaurant, or room functioning as a piano bar. Performers eligible in this category are those who are engaged by the venue and who may do open sets without fixed set lists or appear at designated times. In addition, they may provide accompaniment for other performers, and/or conduct sing-alongs or other types of audience participation. Instrumentalists who provide background music but do not interact with other performers or the audience are not eligible in this category. There is a 40-performance minimum requirement, which refers to the number of evenings/afternoons the candidate performed on his or her regularly scheduled shift(s) or subbing in 2022. If the candidate is not a MAC member, the venue must be a MAC member club in the greater New York metropolitan area for an engagement to be eligible..
