

“Talking To The Moon”

I walk home feeling restless, you know it's been awhile
The people all around me can't replace your smile

I know that you're sleeping ten thousand miles away
I don't want to wake you before you start your day

So I'm Talking To The Moon
Wishing on a star
Hoping you're OK
And wondering where you are
I know you're coming back
But it can't be too soon
Until you're in my arms
I'm Talking To The Moon
Talking To The Moon

I'm listening to my messages, I hope there's one from you
Sometimes I need to hear your voice, it helps to see me through

The TV mutes the distant sound of laughter from the street
I lock the door, turn out the lights, and feel so incomplete

And I'm Talking To The Moon
Wishing on a star
Hoping you're OK
And wondering where you are
I know you're coming back
But it can't be too soon
Until you're in my arms
I'm Talking To The....

Moon, please do your best to keep me company
Please keep him safe and guide him back to me

Talking To The Moon
Wishing on a star
Hoping you're OK
And wondering where you are
I know you're coming back
But it can't be too soon
Until you're in my arms
I'm Talking To The Moon

Until you're in my arms
I'm Talking To The Moon
