

YOU BRING OUT THE JAZZ IN ME

You bring out the jazz in me.
I'm not the button-down I used to be.
I feel like I'm a fusion of bop and free
You bring out the jazz in me.

You wow me like no one has.
The rap on me was "Nice but no pizzazz."
My friends cannot get over the cat they see.
You bring out the jazz in me.

Before we met my life was shades of gray,
But since you came my way,
It's swing and sway
Every day.

I'm wearing a black beret
And looking up the way to Monterey.
I'm heading out round midnight to join a jamboree.
You bring out the jazz in me!

Before we met my life was black and white,
But now there's colored light
That's oh, so bright. Day and night.

You bring out the jazz in me.
To yesterday I just say, "C'est la vie."
The change is for the better, so let's not change the key!
You bring out the jazz in me.
